

FORMER SFO ADVISOR JOINS FAIRE SANS DIRE

Faire Sans Dire is pleased to announce that Tony Wilson has joined its Advisory Board. Tony worked in the Serious Fraud Office (SFO) from 2001 until 2014 as a Senior Prosecutor and Advisor. While with the SFO, Tony was Head of International Assistance for eight years managing SFO investigations on behalf of overseas law enforcement and other agencies.

Tony brings with him a wealth of experience relevant not only to Faire Sans Dire's investigatory assignments but also its international commercial and due diligence services. Prior to joining the SFO Tony worked in commerce as a lawyer and, inter alia, was a partner at Speechly Bircham (now Charles Russell Speechlys).

Apart from carrying out his responsibilities as an Advisory Board member and, if called upon, providing training or similar services for clients, Tony will work on assignments where his skills and experience are pertinent. For more information please contact Faire Sans Dire.

Faire Sans Dire is a niche UK based global intelligence and investigatory organisation that provides bespoke risk management services. Since its establishment in 1978 it has operated in more than 100 countries and, of course, cyberspace.

Bill Fairclough, Faire Sans Dire

This article was first published on 24 May 2016.